Competition-John Fytit "Look-a-Like" Award 2007

Has your lawyer got a sense of humour? Find out by entering him for the John Fytit "Look a Like" Award 2007. The Award recognises the lawyer who most resembles the cartoon character appearing in Law and Disorder cartoons. It is likely to be hotly contested with some of the world's foremost lawyers vying for the title. First prize shall be a Framed Limited edition print of this cartoon.

The two runners up shall receive a copy of "The Law is an Ass-Make Sure it Doesn't Bite Yours!". Entrants must have a legal qualification and it is open to any nationality, male or female. Nominations are accepted from anyone, including other lawyers by email to john.fytit@hotmail.com or paul.brennan@brennanlaw.com.au containing the name, firm and we blink/photo in strict confidence.

Entries will close on 29 November 2006 and the results will be released in the Brennans newsletter on 1 December 2006. The Judges decision (in all respects) shall be final.

ABOUT JOHN FYTIT

The cartoon character John Fytit of Fytit and Loos, the lawyers (pronounced "Fight it and Lose") first appeared in the official publication of the Hong Kong Law Society in 1992.

John Fytit was created by Paul Brennan, a practising Queensland lawyer who draws the weekly cartoon in the Hearsay Column of the Australian Financial Review under the pen name "Leuht Si" (Chinese for lawyer).

In Australia, Paul's "Law & Disorder" cartoons regularly appear in the Proctor the official magazine of the Queensland Law Society.

In 2006 John Fytit started the world's only International Legal Problem Page Blog.

ABOUT PAUL BRENNAN

Paul brings to his cartoons the experience gained from a diverse legal career. Having been trained in a Canadian law firm he went on to be a partner in law firms both in London and Sydney. He has been a tenant barrister in the Middle Temple, a solicitor at New Scotland Yard and a consultant at a Hong Kong criminal law firm. A Legal Counsel and Investigative Manager at Intel Corporation based in Hong Kong.

He now practices at a Queensland law firm Brennan solicitors.

His new book "The Law is an Ass-Make sure it doesn't bite yours!" has been describes as "irreverent and funny". He is a "Legal Eagle" on ABC Radio. A Legal Columnist with My Business (the leading Australian magazine for SMEs). He is known as a humourous speaker.
